

2021 Monthly Meeting Schedule

Las Placitas Presbyterian Church

First Wednesday of Each Month

EXCEPT January—2nd Wednesday

Refreshments: 9 a.m. • Meeting: 9:30 a.m.

January 13th

GETTING STARTED IN GENEALOGY

Robert Korbach

from the Albuquerque Genealogical Society, will speak on building a Genealogical Tree and finding out how DNA can be used to break down brick walls.

Coordinated by Rozanne Hakala

February 3rd

RAISED BED GARDENING

Jennifer Hobson

Co-owner of Albuquerque's Jericho Nursery, will talk to us about raised bed gardening in preparation for the spring planting season.

Coordinated by Janice Grann

March 3rd

WILDLIFE CONSERVATION & HABITAT ENHANCEMENT ON THE PUEBLO OF SANTA ANA

Glenn Harper

Range and Wildlife Division Manager for the Pueblo of Santa Ana's Department of Natural Resources, will discuss habitat restoration, reestablishment and conservation of animal populations, and tracking mountain lions on Santa Ana lands.

Coordinated by Linda Lockett

April 7th

UPDATES ON THE NEW MEXICO FILM INDUSTRY

Karen Criswell

As the Film Liaison for the Albuquerque Film Office, Karen will update us on film and TV production in NM.

Coordinated by Dianna Stone

May 5th

PHOTOGRAPHY WITH CELL PHONES

Mike Stoy

A member of JPG-Photography, Mike will share exciting improvements in cell phone cameras and provide techniques, tips, & tricks that will result in better photos.

Coordinated by Jodi Lawrence

June 2nd

TRAVELING OFF THE BEATEN PATH

Al and Ginny Davis

Two of our Jardineros Members enjoy experiencing countries in unusual ways.

In this talk, Al will share some of their unique adventures in three special locations:

living for 6 weeks in war-tattered Jos, Nigeria; spending 10 nights in Kashmir; and being overnight guests of headhunters in Kalimantan, Indonesia.

Coordinated by Jodi Lawrence

July 7th

MANAGING STRESS
THROUGH THE PROCESS OF CREATIVITY

Merlene Walker

Noted clay artist and instructor, Merlene will share tips for using creative expression as a tool for self-care and relieving stress.

Coordinated by Janice Grann

August 4th

NEW MEXICO'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO SPACE TRAVEL

Loretta Hall

Author Loretta Hall will discuss how New Mexico's pioneering research, facilities, and special geography have contributed to the success of space flight.

She will also give us a brief update on the present status and future of New Mexico's Spaceport America.

Coordinated by Linda Lockett

September 1st

TO BE ANNOUNCED

The 2020 Program Committee had difficulty scheduling programs for 2021 due to the uncertainty of the presentation format. Some very good ideas had to be ruled out because they would only work for in-person meetings.

SO JARDINEROS MEMBERS...

ANY IDEAS?

*Contact Jodi Lawrence
by August 1st, 2021*

October 6th

JEMEZ PUEBLO AND APACHE STORYTELLING

Florence and Salvador Yepa (Jemez Pueblo)
Roque Phil Chavez, Tu'ilzich Water Dancer (Apache) will convey the importance of storytelling in the Native American culture and provide examples of stories from their cultures.

Coordinated by Dianna Stone

November 3rd

SHOW YOUR STUFF

Jardineros members will be displaying and selling their unique artisan wares. This is a wonderful opportunity to do some holiday shopping,
or maybe buy a little something for yourself.

Coordinated by Ellen McMahon

December 1st

HOLIDAY BUFFET AND PARTY

Our December meeting provides us an occasion to gather together, enjoy delicious delicacies, and socialize with our talented, creative, wonderful members! Plus, our Outstanding Service Award for 2021 will be awarded.

Hosted by Jardineros Officers and Committee Chairs