

Greetings!

The end is coming! The end is coming! The end of no meetings in person, no hugging, mask wearing!

I know we are not completely there but I am so much more hopeful. Maybe a June meeting? Certainly the 4th of July parade!

I hope all of you have had your shot(s) and recovered from any side effects. It helped my attitude by having both shots though I could have done without the chills and aches after.

But onto business...thank you for your generosity in donating to St Vincent de Paul's food needs. You never fail to step up.

Our program for May is way out there for me. I can barely answer a cell phone much less take high quality photographs. If you have seen any of Mike Stoy's work, you know that he has mastered the art form. Please join us on Zoom--the link is below. (I am hoping that some day soon I can shut down my Zoom account!)

Virtual hugs to all,
Karen
